Dr. Janice Joseph Elected to the Executive Board of ISPAC

Dr. Janice Joseph, Professor of Criminal Justice at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, was elected to the Executive Board of the International Scientific and Professional Advisory Council (ISPAC) of the United Nations Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Program, a United Nations institute in Milan, Italy. Dr. Joseph will represent the United States during the two-year term of service.

ISPAC, founded in 1991, brings together top criminal justice professionals from around the world to research, analyze, and act on crime prevention and criminal justice issues. As a board member, Dr. Joseph will assist in the planning and organization of the December 2010 ISPAC annual conference. She is also organizing a workshop on behalf of ISPAC for the 2010 U.N. Congress in Brazil in April.
