

The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey
L.E.A.D. Application
Leadership Education Awareness Development Program
*****DEADLINE APRIL 2, 2012*****

Name: _____ Student ID #: Z_____

Address: _____

Phone #: _____ Email: _____

To achieve certification, the following criteria must be met:

- Earn 100 points with a minimum total of points in each tier
- Transfer students may use their previous courses and experiences to meet up to 50 points toward certification
- Must be a senior (96 credits minimum) and have a minimum 2.75 cumulative GPA
- Must have no prior social or housing probation

1

Tier 1 – 10 minimum points total

6 points each S.O.A.R

3 points each Day of Service

MLK Jr. Day of Service

Organizational Participation

2 points each Community Service

ULTRA-Approved Workshops

2

Tier 2 – 30 minimum points total

7 points each Professional Workshops

5 points each Executive Board Leadership Positions

College Internship Programs

Professional Association Conferences: NASPA, NACA, ACUI

3 points each Awards: ULTRA Distinguished Leadership, etc.

3

Tier 3 – 60 minimum points total

10 points each Academic Courses (minimum 2; maximum 5)

Related to leadership education

8 points each Day of Leadership participation

Institutional Leadership (Orientation, Talons, etc.)

5 points each Membership in Leadership Honor Societies

e.g., Order of Omega, Omicron Delta Kappa

*Academic Courses: A maximum of five academic courses related to Leadership that helped develop your leadership qualities. Please list courses you wish to be considered for your application. A minimum of two courses are required.

I verify the enclosed information is accurate and give permission to review my academic records.

Signature: _____

* For further information contact Tom O'Donnell, Campus Center Suite 243, 609-652-4676 *

Please submit this form, your list of leadership activities totaling a minimum of 100 points and a one-page essay outlining how your academic and co-curricular activities have developed your leadership skills.