Galloway Township, NJ- As soon as the fall semester takes flight, the mornings turn chilly and the colors outside begin to change—that’s when it’s time to start looking forward to one of the most anticipated weekends of the semester.

The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey’s Homecoming 2010, themed Mardi Gras Madness, will kick off Thursday October 7, 2010.

A four-day schedule of activities is planned to give current and former students, family members and the College community the chance to reunite and celebrate the new school year. Special events are planned for Saturday, October 9, which is Family Day.

College President Dr. Herman J. Saatkamp, Jr. said, “This year we are delighted to announce the College’s first Athletics Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony to honor our most distinguished student-athletes and coaches.”

The Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony at the Carriage House in Galloway will begin at 6:00 p.m. on Friday, October 8, 2010. Tickets can be purchased through the Athletics Office, which can be reached at 609-652-4217. The following is a sampling of the events.

Thursday, October 7

- 10:00-2:00 p.m., Sports Center: Career Fair
- 8:00 p.m., Alton Auditorium: Stockton Myths and Legends—Founding faculty members and alumni share stories of Stockton’s past and discuss the various myths and legends that have been passed down from one class to the next.
