Galloway Township, NJ - Stockton University’s Manahawkin Instructional Site will hold a seminar on Friday, March 20 discussing how individuals and businesses should approach tax season.

Leading the seminar is Professor John Boyle of Stockton’s School of Business. Professor Boyle graduated from Philadelphia University with a MBA and is a certified business accountant. He will explain tax updates for businesses and individuals and discuss strategies for small businesses. During the seminar, Professor Boyle will take attendees through a tax preparation presentation for individuals.

The seminar runs from 2-3 p.m. at the Manahawkin Instructional Site, 712 East Bay Ave. Registration is not required but appreciated and can be done by calling 609-626-3883.
