Clauson, who performs more than 100 shows per year, was selected in 2011 to showcase at both NACA Nationals and COCA Nationals, the largest conferences for campus activities in the U.S. and Canada respectively. h also won the 2010 “Fastest Rising Star” award by Campus Activities Magazine.

Growing up in New Hampshire as the youngest of six children, Clauson was so shy he hid in the bathroom during school formals – too nervous to ask someone to dance.

Through years of learning and practice, he overcame his shyness and began teaching others the powerful social skills that produced positive results for himself.

Clauson is a former professional hockey player and current marathon runner. He ran a non-profit fitness program for children with disabilities. A type-one diabetic, Clauson continues to mentor others afflicted with the disease.

Clauson’s passion for optimal health inspires him to teach simple ways to drastically boost energy and become the healthiest version of yourself. He is a certified Reiki Practitioner and gives healings to clients as part of his coaching.
