The Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center

The Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center is a component of the School of General Studies. The Sara & Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center's mission is as follows:

- To commemorate the Holocaust and develop sensitivity and understanding by combating antisemitism, racism, hatred, and oppression.

- To memorialize the victims of the Holocaust and pay tribute to the survivors, liberators, and eyewitnesses.

- To focus on the study of the Holocaust by fostering academic research and by serving as a repository for Holocaust materials including oral histories.

- To participate in educating future generations by sponsoring awareness programs and exhibits, by providing workshops and seminars to train those teaching the Holocaust, and by making available printed and audio-visual material to students, educators, and scholars.

- To promote greater awareness of the Holocaust through special activities such as symposia and lectures.

For more information please visit the Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center website by clicking here.