SPRING 2014 – MAHG COURSE SCHEDULE

MAHG 5001  THE HISTORY OF GENOCIDE  CRN: 20186
Monday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Von Joeden-Forgy
Professor of Holocaust and Genocide Studies

Open only to Graduate Students. This course will look at genocide and genocidal events from ancient times to the present. While we cannot investigate every instance of genocide and/or mass atrocity, we shall explore a number of instances in Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas. Our examination will begin with a study of some of the deliberate, systematic measures toward the extermination of racial, political or cultural groups before the term “genocide” was coined in 1944 by Raphael Lemkin, and it will continue through to the present. We shall also explore the 1948 United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.

MAHG 5007  IDA E. KING – JEWISH RESISTANCE TO THE HOLOCAUST  CRN: 20187
Wednesday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Patrick Henry
Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Scholar of Holocaust Studies

Open only to MAHG Graduate Students.
Stockton College established the first American name chair in Holocaust Studies in a public institution. Maintained on an interfaith basis, the chair rotates and is occupied each academic year by a world-renowned Holocaust scholar. It is recommended that a course with at least one (more, if possible) Ida E. King Visiting Scholar should be taken while a student is matriculated. Note: MAHG 5007 may be taken three (3) times, when topics vary.

MAHG 5016  EUROPE IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY  CRN: 20188
Thursday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Michael Hayse  Director, M.A. Program in Holocaust and Genocide Studies
Associate Professor of Historical Studies

Open only to MAHG Graduate Students.
This course analyzes the major political, social, economic and intellectual developments of twentieth-century Europe, the nationalist and ethnic antagonisms that contributed to the First World War, the rise of National Socialism and other fascist movements in the wake of the Great War and the Great Depression, and the causes of World War II and the Holocaust, the transformation and division of Europe at the epicenter of the Cold War, and the reemergence of ethnic strife following the collapse of Communism in 1989.

MAHG 5029  THE UN, HUMAN RIGHTS & GENOCIDE  CRN: 20189
Tuesday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Carol Rittner, RSM
Distinguished Professor of Holocaust & Genocide Studies and
Dr. Marsha Raticoff Grossman Professor of Holocaust Studies

This course is a Genocide (G) elective. This course will focus on the role of the United Nations in responding to violations of human rights and genocide. This course also will examine and analyze the political and legal parameters that affect the possibility of military intervention, as well as the effect of the 2005 Declaration on "The Responsibility to Protect."
MAHG 5001  THE HISTORY OF GENOCIDE  CRN: 20186
Monday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Von Joeden-Forgey
Professor of Holocaust and Genocide Studies

Open only to Graduate Students. This course will look at genocide and genocidal events from ancient times to the present. While we cannot investigate every instance of genocide and/or mass atrocity, we shall explore a number of instances in Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas. Our examination will begin with a study of some of the deliberate, systematic measures toward the extermination of racial, political or cultural groups before the term “genocide” was coined in 1944 by Raphael Lemkin, and it will continue through to the present. We shall also explore the 1948 United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide.

MAHG 5007  IDA E. KING – JEWISH RESISTANCE TO THE HOLOCAUST  CRN: 20187
Wednesday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Patrick Henry
Ida E. King Distinguished Visiting Scholar of Holocaust Studies

Open only to MAHG Graduate Students.
Stockton College established the first American name chair in Holocaust Studies in a public institution. Maintained on an interfaith basis, the chair rotates and is occupied each academic year by a world-renowned Holocaust scholar. It is recommended that a course with at least one (more, if possible) Ida E. King Visiting Scholar be taken while a student is matriculated. Note: MAHG 5007 may be taken three (3) times, when topics vary.

MAHG 5016  EUROPE IN THE TWENTIETH CENTURY  CRN: 20188
Thursday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Michael Hayse Director, M.A. Program in Holocaust and Genocide Studies
Associate Professor of Historical Studies

Open only to MAHG Graduate Students.
This course analyzes the major political, social, economic and intellectual developments of twentieth-century Europe, the nationalist and ethnic antagonisms that contributed to the First World War, the rise of National Socialism and other fascist movements in the wake of the Great War and the Great Depression, and the causes of World War II and the Holocaust, the transformation and division of Europe at the epicenter of the Cold War, and the reemergence of ethnic strife following the collapse of Communism in 1989.

MAHG 5029  THE UN, HUMAN RIGHTS & GENOCIDE  CRN: 20189
Tuesday 6PM-9PM
Dr. Carol Ritner, RSM
Distinguished Professor of Holocaust & Genocide Studies and
Dr. Marsha Raticoff Grossman Professor of Holocaust Studies

This course is a Genocide (G) elective. This course will focus on the role of the United Nations in responding to violations of human rights and genocide. This course also will examine and analyze the political and legal parameters that affect the possibility of military intervention, as well as the effect of the 2005 Declaration on "The Responsibility to Protect."