Stockton Goes to the Beach
Move To The Cape May Convention Center

“Where the Arts Come Alive!”

POMONA, NJ, JANUARY 26, 2012 --- Stockton Goes to the Beach has found a new home at the intersection of Stockton Place and Beach Avenue in the brand new Cape May Convention Center in Cape May, NJ. The entertainment lineup is: July 9 – Jay & The Americans; July 16 – Dave Mason; July 23 – The Lettermen; July 30 – Gerry & The Pacemakers; August 6 - “Ricky Nelson Remembered” starring Matthew and Gunnar Nelson & The Stone Canyon Band; August 13 – The Association, and August 20 – Gary Puckett.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tickets are priced at $30. For more information go to www.stockton.edu/pac.

On July 9th -- Jay & The Americans -- a big voice, a big band with big hits.

Their huge catalogue of hits include: “Come A Little Bit Closer,” “Cara Mia,” “This Magic Moment,” “Walking In The Rain,” “Only In America,” “She Cried” and “When you Dance.”

On July 16th -- Dave Mason played in bands like The Jaguars, The Hellions, and Deep Feeling. He co-founded the seminal jazz/jam rock group Traffic in 1967. Later, there was a successful solo career through the '70s and early '80s. Mason’s hit, “We Just Disagree,” put him on the map as a solo artist. In 2004, Mason was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame as a member of Traffic with bandmates Steve Winwood, Jim Capaldi, and (posthumously) Chris Wood.

On July 23rd, The Lettermen, one the most romantic singing groups of the 60’s will perform. The Lettermen’s memorable hits are “Turn Around, Look At Me,” “Love,” “Theme From A Summer Place” and “When I Fall In Love.” The one change Tony Butala, original founding member of The Lettermen, would have made in the 45-plus year career of one of the most popular vocal groups in history is a surprising one. “We chose the wrong name!” he exclaims. Although they did pack away the sweaters; fortunately, their fans have gotten past the name.

On July 30th -- Don’t miss their final concert tour in the U.S. Gerry & The Pacemakers’ hits include: “Don’t Let the Sun Catch You Cryin’,” “Ferry Cross the Mersey” and “It’s All Right.” For some time Gerry & the Pacemakers were the Beatles nearest competitors in Britain. Managed, like the Beatles, by Brian Epstein, Gerry Marsden and his band burst out of the gate with three consecutive number one UK hits in 1963, “How Do You Do It,” “I Like It,” and “You’ll Never Walk Alone.”

August 6th -- The summer fun continues with “Ricky Nelson Remembered” starring Matthew and Gunnar Nelson & The Stone Canyon Band. The multi-media show pays tribute to one of the most cherished and beloved artists of all time. His sons bring his musical legacy to life by playing all of Ricky’s hits: “Garden Party,” “Travelin’ Man,” “Hello Mary Lou,” “Poor Little Fool,” “Lonesome Town,” “I’m Walkin’,” “Fools Rush In,” “It’s Late,” “Young World,” “Believe What You Say” and “Stood Up.”

On August 13 -- The Association will perform all of their hits: “Along Comes Mary,” “Cherish,” “Never My Love” and “Windy.” One of the most successful bands to come out of the 60’s, they have sold over 80 million records, tapes, CDs and DVDs. They’ve earned a number of achievement awards as well as 6 gold records and 2 platinum records. Their album, The Association's Greatest Hits (Warner Brothers), continues to be one of the longest best-selling albums in the history of the company.

On August 20 -- Gary Puckett and the Union Gap was one of the most successful musical groups of the sixties. Gary's unmistakable signature voice garnered six consecutive gold records and top ten Billboard hits with the following titles: “Young Girl,” “Woman Woman,” “Lady Willpower,” “Over You,” “This Girl Is A Woman Now,” “Keep The Customer Satisfied,” “Don't Give In To Him” and “Home.”
