“The performance was magical! . . . A dream program . . .” Charleston, Illinois “The performances, along with rich and colorful scenery and period costuming, all combined to create a Christmas flavor one could almost taste just by watching . . . and what a superior taste it was.” Oshkosh, Wisconsin

“Everything about it was perfect. The show is, by far, the finest, most colorful evening of entertainment we have ever had.” Mansfield, Ohio

The Nebraska Theatre Caravan’s national touring musical production of “A Christmas Carol” has been an American holiday tradition for 30 years, entertaining thousands of families across the county. So join Ebenezer Scrooge on his unforgettable, magical journey! Audiences will enjoy his discovery of the true meaning of Christmas in a stage show that has become one of the most treasured family gifts of the season.

With all the warmth and comfort of Christmas cheer, “A Christmas Carol” is packed with laughter, pageantry and gorgeous costumes. Every memorable detail of Dickens’ “A Christmas Carol” springs to life, from spin-chilling ghosts to heartfelt renditions of traditional British carols. Crotchety Scrooge, lovable Tiny Tim, and all the fascinating characters that audiences have come to love make Charles Dickens’ enchanting story a treasured holiday event.

For our patrons with special needs, the Stockton Performing Arts Center offers wheelchair accessible seating, large type programs, and listening assistive devices. Please identify any needs you may have when making a reservation.

The Stockton Performing Arts Center, the Jersey Shore’s Center for the Arts, is located on the campus of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, on Jim Leeds Road in Pomona (Galloway Township). Just 12 miles west of Atlantic City, the Center is easily accessible from the Garden State Parkway and the Atlantic City Expressway.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts.
