Charles E. Ingram
Vice President for Administration & Finance

Charles E. Ingram joins Stockton University with over 28 years of administrative experience within higher education.

Ingram previously served as Associate Vice President for Financial Services at the University of Arizona in Tucson, Arizona. He is a highly experienced executive with an impressive business, fiscal, budgetary and planning acumen. His division at the University of Arizona, successfully managed a $1.6 billion budget. His office incorporated budgeting and finance, accounting, institutional compliance, capital finance, investment and treasury operations, bursar, operations and procurement, records management, human resources, computing support and outreach, along with the supervision of 225 employees and oversight of a $10.5 million annual operating budget. As chair of the university’s Space Committee, Charles played an important role in helping guide the university in its strategic planning of facilities, maintenance, and construction of capital projects, as well as, parking and real estate administration and other public/private initiatives. He also worked with the University Foundation, where he served on the Investment Committee.

Charles is highly admired and respected amongst his colleagues nationally. He is the immediate past President of the Western Association of College and University Business Officers (WACUBO) and currently serves on the national board for of college and university business officers (NACUBO).

Ingram earned a Master of Arts Degree in Organizational Management from the University of Phoenix. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from the University of Arizona.