The Graduate Student Council represents the rights, needs, and interests of the graduate student community.

It is committed to civic engagement, academics, professionalism, and the advancement of graduate studies.

It is also responsible for allocating funds to graduate students for professional development and scholarly pursuits.

All graduate students are invited to be members of the Graduate Student Council.

How will you define your experience?
What is the GSC’s mission?

As a group, we...

- Advocate for graduate and professional students within the college community.
- Facilitate communication between fellow students, faculty/staff and administration.
- Help fund opportunities for graduate studies including attending conferences, presenting research, guest lectures, and club activities.
- Fundraise for scholarships for graduate students.

What has the GSC done?

In 2011—2012, we...

- Debuted the Graduate Student Lounge, an exclusive space for grads to study, work on projects and simply relax.
- Financially supported two students to go to India and one student to go to Budapest.
- Financially supported graduates to attend prestigious academic and professional conferences throughout the US.
- Procured the most up-to-date exam review software for the Occupational Therapy and Physical Therapy licensing exams.
- Raised $2,130 in 2011 and $2,750 in 2012 for Graduate Student Scholarships.
