LA THEATRE WORKS (PAGE TWO)

“Consistently superb work.” -- Los Angeles Times

L.A. Theatre Works makes it clear why H.G. Wells's War of the Worlds is truly the mother of all space invasions. Originally performed by Welles' Mercury Theatre of the Air, the 1938, live 60-minute broadcast of an "eyewitness report" of an invasion from Mars caused a nationwide panic.

Scorned by his colleagues after making the extraordinary claim that prehistoric animals exist and that he has seen them, Professor Challenger leads a harrowing four-person expedition through the remote jungles of South America to settle once and for all the validity of his claim. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's campy adventure "The Lost World" follows this scientific expedition deep into the Amazon jungle — and back in time.

L.A. Theatre Works uses costumes and small stage sets to add to the experience of a live radio theater performance.

For our patrons with special needs, the Stockton Performing Arts Center offers wheelchair accessible seating, large type programs, and listening assistive devices. Please identify any needs you may have when making a reservation.

The Stockton Performing Arts Center, the Jersey Shore's Center for the Arts, is located on the campus of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, on Jim Leeds Road in Pomona (Galloway Township). Just 12 miles west of Atlantic City, the Center is easily accessible from the Garden State Parkway and the Atlantic City Expressway.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts.
