HIST 1152-101
Introduction to United States History to 1865
Jack Devine
MTWR 8:00 to 11:00 A.M.
Summer Session A 2006
(H)

Course Content: This course is designed as a comprehensive overview of the rise of America as an important New World nation within North Atlantic civilization.

Prerequisites: None.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory; because of the small number of class meetings, no absences are permitted.

Class Format: Class discussion.

Readings: Three books will have to be purchased:
Robertson, David. Denmark Vesey.
Donald, David. Lincoln Reconsidered.

Projects: None.

Evaluation: class participation, mid-term examination, and final examination.
HIST 2162-201
US History: 1865-1920
Theresa Napson-Williams
TR 11:30AM – 2:30pM
Summer B 2006
(H)

Course Content: This course provides an overview of major American history topics from the Civil War through the early 1920s. It is designed to inspire students to think critically as well as hone research and writing techniques. Through independent research, group discussion, projects, films and exams student have ample opportunity to apply skills and knowledge.

Prerequisites: None

Attendance:  Daily Attendance is required.

Class Format: Lectures, small and large group discussions, films.

Readings: Discovering the American Past; Reconstruction; Land of Hope;

Projects: 5-7 page paper and 15-20 minute oral presentation

Evaluation: To be determined.
HIST 2163-201
US History Since 1920
Theresa Napson-Williams
MW 11:30AM – 2:30PM
Summer B 2006
(H)

Course Content: Examines the social, political, economic and cultural changes in the United States since World War I. Topics include: Great Depression, Communism, Civil Rights and the Women’s Movement and Vietnam.

Prerequisites: None

Attendance: Daily Attendance is required.

Class Format: Lectures, small and large group discussions, films.

Readings: To be determined.

Projects: 5-7 page paper and 15-20 minute oral presentation

Evaluation: To be advised.
HIST 4653-391
Directed Readings on Problems: American History
Robert Gregg
TBA
Summer A 2006
(H, W2)
This is a Distance Learning Course – Mandatory Orientation

Course Content: This seminar studies the fundamental research problems and methods in American history.

Prerequisites: One program course in American History.

Attendance: Mandatory

Class Format: Online discussion

Readings: Several texts in American Historiography

Papers/Projects: Three (3) Short reviews and one long historiographical paper

Evaluation: Participation on WebBoard/WebCT, attendance, in-class participation and papers.