Sara Faurot, director of Alumni Affairs, said, "We want to bring alumni of all ages together for a special event during Homecoming Weekend, which we hope will become an annual tradition. AlumNight to Remember is an event for alumni by alumni to reconnect classmates and show them what's been happening on campus."

The event was the idea of its alumni co-chairs, Joel and Kara Steele, and has been planned by an all-alumni committee.

"We're excited to help alumni reconnect with Stockton College as we have over the last several years," said Joel Steele, Class of 2001.

"Even those who graduated only a few years ago will be impressed and amazed by all of the exciting changes on the campus. For Stockton College alumni who have been waiting for a -more-
