David Brighton's live tribute to British pop/rock legend David Bowie is an uncanny recreation of the music and the magic of one of popular music's most influential and innovative superstars. Together with the considerable talents of an amazing backup band, Brighton recreates the greatest moments of Bowie's constantly metamorphosing career - a career that has bridged more than three decades, and helped shape an entire generation of stars that would follow.

Whether they launch into show stopping versions of dancefloor mega-hits like "Fame," "Young Americans," "Let's Dance" and "China Girl" - or deliver spine tingling renditions of glitter rock anthems like "Changes" and "Rebel Rebel" - Brighton and the Space Oddity Band transport today's audiences through some of the most exciting moments in the history of Rock and Roll. In the midst of all of the fun, one thing becomes very clear: David Bowie brought excitement and adventure back to the entertainment world in the '70's, '80's and '90's. Brighton is credited as being the world's best David Bowie impersonator, with one of the most entertaining tribute acts ever to hit the stage. "David Brighton has the voice, moves and look to actually step in for David Bowie if he were unavailable and few would ever know. Experiencing David Brighton's Tribute to David Bowie made for a truly remarkable evening," says Harry Maslin, the producer of David Bowie's "Young Americans" and "Station to Station" albums. -more-
