As part of the Nashville songwriting community, Coley has written new songs such as "Free Spirits," a duet, "Til The Light Turns Green," and "She's Got Another Think Coming" which he performs in songwriter rounds throughout the south. He mixes in the new material with the hits that he's written, performing and/or writing with songwriting talents such as Byron Hill, Paul Overstreet, Gary Cotton, and Georgia Middleman, as well as others.

Coley's television exposure crosses all demographic boundaries. He's hosted "The Midnight Special." He's appeared on "The Tonight Show," "David Soul and Friends," "American Bandstand," "Hollywood Squares" (A Special Rock Edition), "Make Me Laugh," "Don Kirshner's Rock Concert," "Prime Time Country," and the "Trinity Broadcasting Network."

Some of Coley's television and movie theme songs written or performed include: "Just Tell Me You Love Me," "Dr. Pepper," "Major League, Back To The Minors," "James At 16," "Joe Panther," and "Maxwell House Coffee" with Paul Newman in Japan.

Robbie Dupree, is a singer-songwriter best known for his 1980 Top-10 pop hit, "Steal Away."

The Yacht Rock Revue is known as the Greatest Show on Surf and a fine tribute to '70s light rock. Their spot-on renditions of Hall & Oates, Michael McDonald and Steely Dan have enthralled fans across the United States.

By blurring the lines between a tribute, an original act, and a comedic troupe, the Yacht Rock Revue has forged a unique niche market and a special bond with their fans.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts and by funds from the National Endowment for the Arts.
