Galloway Township, NJ- Zlata Filipović author of “Zlata’s Diary: A Child’s Life in Wartime Sarajevo,” will host a question and answer session about her book and life at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey on Wednesday, April 1, 2009 at 6:00 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center.

"Zlata's Diary," was written between 1991 and 1993 about the siege of Sarajevo (the capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina) by Serb forces during the Bosnian War. Writing in her diary about the horrors of the war that surrounded her earned her the label of the “Anne Frank of Sarajevo.”

Zlata also wrote the Preface to “Milosevic: The People's Tyrant,” and the Foreword to “The Freedom Writers Diary.” Most recently she co-edited “Stolen Voices: Young People's War Diaries, from World War I to Iraq.”

Immediately following the question and answer session, Filipović will be available to sign copies of her book.

This event is free and open to the public and has been sponsored by Stockton’s Holocaust Resource Center. For more information on this event please contact Maryann McLoughlin at 609-652-4699 or Maryann.McLoughlin@stockton.edu.
