Galloway, N.J. - Academic and industry experts will discuss the outlook for the region's tourism and business season on Wednesday, June 1 at the Jersey Shorecast, sponsored by the Lloyd D. Levenson Institute of Gaming, Hospitality & Tourism (LIGHT) of Stockton University.

"Shorecast is a great opportunity for industry professionals to assess the current market and then project the coming season," said Rummy Pandit, executive director of LIGHT.

Mayor Don Guardian will provide welcoming remarks and an update on Atlantic City. The annual event also features two panel discussions with experts including:

- Brian Tyrrell, associate professor of Hospitality and Tourism Management Studies at Stockton;
- Michael Busler, professor of Business Studies at Stockton;
- Mike Tidwell, director of sales and marketing at Stockton Seaview Hotel & Golf Club;
- Diane Wieland, director of the Cape May County Department of Tourism;
- Vicki Clark, president of the Cape May County Department of Commerce;
- Joseph Kelly, president of the Greater Atlantic City Chamber of Commerce;
- Gary Musich, vice president of convention sales at Meet AC.

Pandit and Felicia Grondin, LIGHT's associate director, will each moderate a panel.

The Jersey Shorecast will be held at the Carnegie Center, 35 S. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Atlantic City. Registration and continental breakfast starts at 9 a.m., and the program takes place from 9:30 -11 a.m.

Space is limited for this free public event. To register, email: light@stockton.edu or phone: 609-626-3893.
