Galloway Twp., NJ – The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey will celebrate 10 years of Graduate and Continuing Studies with a series of festivities for faculty, staff, students, alumni and community members on Saturday, April 5, 2008 from 3:30 to 7 p.m. in the F-Wing Atrium.

Event attendees can meet and network with fellow alumni, faculty and staff; participate in professional development sessions; dine on hors d'oeuvres and dance to the music of Package Goods Orchestra.

“We are excited to celebrate our graduate programs and hope to see a large number of familiar faces, some new ones and some we haven’t seen in a while,” said Deb Figart, Ph.D., Dean of the School of Graduate and Continuing Studies.

Those individuals who are interested in attending should visit www.stockton.edu/grad to RSVP or call (609) 652-4298 for further information.
