Galloway, N.J. - Stockton's visual arts faculty is pleased to announce an exhibition of their fall Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) graduates from the Visual Arts Program within the School of Arts and Humanities. The exhibition will be on display from Nov. 28 through December 11. The opening reception to meet the artists will be held from 1-3 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 4 in the Stockton University Art Galleries on the main Galloway campus.

There is no admission fee and this event is open to the public. The art galleries are located in the L-Wing, adjacent to the Performing Arts Center, with parking in lots 6-7. Directions/campus map/event updates available at: www.stockton.edu/artgallery

Ten exhibiting artists from New Jersey will be featured, with nine concentrating in Visual Communications and one in Photography. The Visual Communications artists are: Robert Carolla of Minotola in Buena Borough, Gavin Fong of Kendall Park, Mykala McShea of Sicklerville, Kelly O'Brien of Galloway, Matthew Podolla of Morganville, Daniel Przygocki of Brick, Colleen Henry and Timothy Sheldon of Egg Harbor Township and Thomas Worthington of Brigantine. Jack Martin, of Villas in Lower Township, majored in photography.
