Achievements and Accolades

Congratulations to all the School of Education faculty and staff who have volunteered their time to join us at our first Future Educators Association (FEA) conference for high school students. This free conference will be held in the Campus Center on Tuesday, June 2 from 8:15-2:15. Participants will enjoy breakout sessions with Dr. John Quinn, Ms. Jeanne DelColle, Dr. Norma Boakes, Dr. Darrell Cleveland, Dr. Priti Haria, Ms. Chelsea Tracy-Bronson, Dr. Doug Harvey and Dr. Pamela Vaughan.

Kudos to our organizers, Dr. Lois Spitzer and Dr. Meg White, both of whom have also been working on the nationally-recognized Tomorrow’s Teachers project. Recently, the Center for Educator Recruitment, Retention and Advancement (CERRA) congratulated and thanked Dr. Spitzer for her series of curricular additions to Tomorrow’s Teachers that emphasize cultural diversity. The new materials will be included in dual credit versions of the course, offered at Brick High School, Southern Regional High School and Atlantic City High School next year.

Friends and Fellows of our School to Meet

The Xi chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, will hold their February 3 meeting for regular members at the Stockton Campus Center Board Room. President Janel Shafer will be presenting Xi Chapter’s first book award to a Stockton Education student at 6:00pm. Contact Janel Shafer for more information.

Stockton alumna and frequent NJEA workshop presenter Lynne Kesselman is the founding president of the newest New Jersey chapter for CSTA: Computer Science Teachers Association. Membership is free, meetings include idea and resource exchanges and professional development hours. Mark your calendar for the next meeting, March 11, 6:00pm in Room J-202 in Stockton’s School of Education.

Adjunct Faculty Lou DellaBarca, President of Chapter 1616 PDK invites guests and new members to a mixer on Thursday, February 19 at 6:00pm at the Harbor Pines Golf Club.
PARCC Updates: Chief Performance Officer at Stockton 2/24

New Jersey’s first PARCC testing windows are set to open in March, replacing the NJASK and HSPA exams for Math and English Language Arts.

Stockton faculty and staff have invited New Jersey’s Chief Performance Officer, Dr. Bari Erlichson, to spend the day talking about possibilities for the new exams to impact current and future K-college collaborations, such as dual credit courses, shared professional development programs, admissions considerations and freshmen course placement practices. Assistant Commissioner Erlichson will spend the day of 2/24 at Stockton’s main campus in Galloway, meeting with small groups of faculty, staff, administrators and students.

An open public session will take place at 4:30pm. If you are able to attend, please email Dean Keenan your RSVP so we can plan light refreshments for all attendees.

Need assistance preparing for the PARCC window? Visit the Top 12 Resources for Educators, where you’ll find online webinars, guidebooks, sample test questions, a technology tutorial, and resources for parents. PARCC is also preparing a Leaders’ Toolkit that will be posted to this same web site in the near future.

Hope to see you on 2/24!

Spotlight on Women in STEM

Georgetown’s Center for Poverty and Equity recently hosted a live-stream conference to examine how we can end marginalization of girls in STEM and Career/Technical Education (conference archive begins about 25:00 and extends throughout the remaining five hours of informative sessions).

Stockton has partnered with the American Association of University Women (AAUW) Atlantic and Cape May chapters, to bring a Summer STEM Tech Trek residential camp to the College July 19-26, 2015. Please consider nominating a 7th grade girl to participate in the week-long camp for just $50. The remaining costs will be covered by philanthropy that members and others who also believe in the importance of increasing STEM opportunities for girls.

AAUW is also still seeking volunteers to assist with the camp, offer workshops, or sponsor a camper. Visit the web site to participate.

Our School of Education prepares new K-12 teachers for CAEP-TEAC-accredited initial certification. We emphasize more and better field experiences than most other pre-service programs in New Jersey.

We also offer a CAEP-TEAC-accredited graduate program for master teachers, supervisors, specialists, principals and a program for instructional technologists. Many of our courses lead to additional state certifications and endorsements, and all can be customized to meet your needs, both at our Stockton locations in Galloway, Atlantic City, Hammonton, Manahawkin or Woodbine, as well as anywhere within your school district. Special group and on-site tuition pricing plans are available as well.

Our Southern Regional Institute & Educational Technology Training Center (SRI & ETTC) offers professional development aimed at increasing student achievement. Our Centers for Community Schools and Financial Literacy fulfill our commitment to excellence in student and community engagement.

From the Dean’s Desk

Dear Friends of our School,

The deadline for sending comments to the Department of Education’s Notice of Proposed Rulemaking is February 2, 2015. Thank you to all of our faculty, alumni and partners who have already sent responses. Our professional association, the American Association of Colleges of Teacher Education (AACTE) has created a kit to help interested citizens draft responses.

The School of Education is proud to continue expanding our partnerships with schools, districts and related educational organizations that include the Computer Science Teachers Association of Southern NJ, the Delta Kappa Gamma Society Xi Chapter, the AAUW Atlantic County chapter, the Phi Delta Kappa Stockton Chapter, the Future Educators Association and our newest undergraduate organization: the Stockton Education Society (web site coming soon). These partnerships allow our members and friends to share ideas, resources and commitment to strengthening education in our south Jersey region.

Now more than ever, our future teachers need your help, as a mentor, hiring agent or donor. Please click the link at right and donate to our scholarship fund that makes the path towards teaching a bit smoother. No gift is too small, and all are deeply appreciated. Have you won an award in education? A grant or prize? Gotten a promotion or an entirely new job? Drop us a line and let us share your good news with our faculty, alumni, staff, current students and friends. As always, please email keenanc@stockton.edu with your feedback.

Thank you for making gifts to the School of Education. Your gifts have helped us to build Scholarships and Programs that support student learning.

Best wishes,
Dr. “ClauDean” Keenan
